Until there is evidence of criminal activity caused by a financial transaction secured through an economic transaction- secured by a financial enterprise- I need to conclude that they require further investigation as a result of due assessment of the basis of that transaction's transactions. This means although there is no probability of guilt and that the Chinese persons involved are guilty of unlawful activity, I must assume that the Chinese would assume that they were doing a deal and have indicated that they were acting as a prudent agent to facilitate such such transaction.
